ORDER

The Court has received multiple pro se filings by Defendant Andre Terrell Anderson, including several items docketed as motions for relief. See, e.g., Doc. Nos. 36, 39, 42.

Although the Court has considered the content of these filings in the context of considering Defendant’s request for new counsel, “Defendant has legal representation through an experienced, court-appointed defense attorney. Because Defendant is represented by counsel, the Court finds no need for Defendant personally to make written submissions.” United States v. Cooks, No. CR-23-94-D, 2024 WL 102665, at *1 (W.D. Okla. Jan. 9, 2024).<sup>1</sup>

Accordingly, to the extent Defendant’s pro se submissions request substantive relief related to the merits of this case, they are DENIED and will not be considered for that purpose. See id.; United States v. Sandoval-De Lao, 283 F. App'x 621, 623-25 (10th Cir. 2008).

<sup>1</sup> “A defendant has no right to hybrid representation in which he both represents himself and is represented by counsel. Although a trial court has discretion to permit such representation in a particular case, the Court declines to exercise such discretion here.” Cooks, 2024 WL 102665, at *1 (citation omitted).

IT IS SO ORDERED this 9th day of May, 2024.
